Let's talk about art regardless of the distance between us

Ars Graphica Poland invites you to an open seminar, which will take place on 31 May 2021 from 6:30 to 7:40 p.m. (CEST) on the Zoom platform.

The wide range of topics will certainly be of interest both for specialists in the field and all art lovers. Małgorzata Maria Grąbczewska will present the latest issue of Daguerreotype, which focuses on photography and power. Dr Anna Pięcińska will talk about the iconography of the Annunciation in the perspective of the speech act theory from the viewpoint of a philologist and art historian. Finally, Adrianna Kaczmarek will talk about graphic self-portraits of one of the most important artists that created in Poland at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries – Leon Wyczółkowski (1852-1936).

The meeting will be hosted by dr Weronika Kobylińska and Magdalena Herman – the coordinators of AG Polska.

Registration is not required. Everyone is welcome. Please use the link below to join us at our virtual seminar:
